ANSWER

Minister of State for Law and Justice and Electronics and Information Technology.

(SHRI P.P. CHAUDHARY)

(a) to (f) : Appointment of Judges of the Supreme Court and High Courts is made under Articles 124 and 217 of the Constitution of India respectively. These Articles do not provide for reservation for any caste or class of persons. Therefore, no caste or class-wise data of Judges is maintained. However, the Government has requested the Chief Justices of the High Courts that while sending proposals for appointment of Judges, due consideration be given to suitable candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Other Backward Classes, Minorities and women.

A Statement showing the number of women Judges working in Supreme Court and the High Courts as on 09.12.2016 is annexed.

The National Commission for Scheduled Castes in its report of 2011 inter-alia recommended the constitution of a National Judicial Commission for making appointment to the Superior Courts. In this regard, the Government enacted the Constitution (Ninety-Ninth Amendment) Act, 2014 and the National Judicial Appointments Commission Act, 2014 w.e.f 13.4.2015. The Supreme Court vide Judgment dated 16.10.2015 has struck down both the Acts as unconstitutional and void.
